

PENSOLE FOOTWEAR DESIGN ACADEMY is pleased to announce the launch of 2016 iPENSOLE at Design School Kolding by ECCO

In partnership with the Design School Kolding (DSKD), PENSOLE Footwear Design Academy will hold their third international Master Class in Kolding, Denmark sponsored by ECCO. The 2016 iPENSOLE Master Class is a hands-on 4.5-week program, pairing aspiring footwear, color & material designers with projects from ECCO to create new designs from idea to finished design concept.

Students will visit ECCO's headquarters and learn from professionals ranging from design directors, designers, developers, engineers, and PENSOLE's staff—all willing to share knowledge to help inspire, guide and challenge you to reach your creative potential.

In order to be considered for the class, you must follow the instruction below:

1. Visit www.PENSOLE.com to sign-up and register for the class.
2. Read the brief carefully to understand the submission requirements.
3. Submit your design according to the instruction before the deadline.
